Description

Large Chinese porcelain platter with blue and white decoration, dating from the 18th century, reign of Qianlong. A very beautiful platter in excellent condition, with a majestic floral design that covers the entire surface, including the rim, and is a testament to its quality. Note the amusing presence of a flying insect against the white sky. This collector's item was brought back at great expense in the 18th century by the East India Company for noble families in Europe. A truly beautiful piece, its size and quality will make a fine addition to a discerning home. Shipping available within France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided. Collection is possible at Mas d'Avalrich, Montéscot 6620 (Tel: +33 6 11 14 25 33) or at my stand at the
