Green Guilloché Enamel Cufflinks And Breastplate Buttons, Belle époque Art Nouveau

160 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

An elegant antique set of cufflinks and bib buttons in green guilloché enamel with a gilt floral design, preserved in its original box from the Parisian jeweler Boin & Henry, 3 rue Pasquier, Paris. A superb antique dress accessory, typical of French Belle Époque/Art Nouveau jewelry from the late 19th to early 20th century. The set comprises a pair of cufflinks and three matching bib buttons (5 pieces) in green guilloché enamel with a gilt floral motif. The settings feature an elegant light border highlighting the depth of the emerald green color. The buttons bear a maker's mark, HF, characteristic of antique French jewelry work. Presented in its original Boin & Henry Paris box, this set is a fine example of antique cufflinks and bib buttons for a formal shirt, sought after by collectors of antique
