Description

An elegant Restoration period chaise longue or daybed resting on a finely molded solid wood frame. The curved back and asymmetrical armrests are characteristic of furniture from the first third of the 19th century. The base features beautiful, understated, and elegant carving. The chaise longue is upholstered in a decorative striped fabric in shades of blue and ochre, adding considerable charm to the piece. An interesting feature: a side section unfolds, allowing the seat to be extended for greater comfort. This piece of furniture is both decorative and functional, ideal for a living room, bedroom, or classic interior. Good overall condition. Dimensions: Height: 90 cm Width: 157 cm Depth: 64 cm Length when extended: 190 cm. Delivery available in France and internationally.
