Description

COD 11512An elegant 20th-century French painting. Oil on board painting depicting a splendid still life with autumn fruits. The brushstrokes are soft, and the color palette is dominated by warm tones--the reds and oranges of the apples, the golden yellows and greens of the pears. The background is dark and neutral, acting as a theatrical backdrop that enhances the brightness of the fruit. The light comes from the side and shapes the volumes with delicate chiaroscuro transitions, highlighting the texture of the peels and the natural imperfections of the fruit. The composition is balanced and reveals a naturalistic approach to painting, with a clear focus on the tactile rendering of the surfaces. This painting exhibits excellent pictorial quality and is in the vein of early 20th-century French academic
