An elegant pair of greyhounds crafted from Tuscan white porcelain, dating back to the early 20th century. The sculptures depict two greyhounds seated in a mirrored pose, with slender lines and harmonious proportions that enhance the natural elegance and pride typical of the breed. The modeling is meticulous in its anatomical details musculature, tapered legs, and facial expression, while the surface features a delicate patina with slight traces of aging, attesting to their authenticity. These highly refined decorative pieces are ideal for enhancing entryways, living rooms, or classically styled spaces, and are also perfect as dramatic accents beside a fireplace or console table. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:
