Description

Painting, oil on canvas "The Dragonfly Woman" - A. Carnielli (signed) - 19th century A striking oil painting on canvas depicting the allegorical figure of the "Dragonfly Woman," a young winged female figure captured in a dynamic pose while leaning on a branch, immersed in a natural landscape of soft, nuanced hues. It represents a mythological or allegorical figure, often interpreted as a nymph or fairy with wings similar to those of a dragonfly, set in a natural landscape. The protagonist is depicted with grace and movement, evoking a symbolist and fantastical image linked to the world of nature and the imagination. The composition is distinguished by its sensitive use of light and warm, harmonious tones, which create a poetic and dreamy atmosphere. The work is signed "A. Carnielli" at
