Description

Refined carved solid walnut writing desk, embellished with walnut veneer and cherry wood inlays. The piece is in excellent condition, featuring a feather polish made with natural shellac. The writing desk is distinguished by its curved legs, typical of the period, and its five front drawers, ideal for storing objects, equipped with keys and locks in gilded bronze and lost-wax casting. At the back are five additional faux drawers. Further refinement is provided by the carvings in the solid wood on the legs and corners of the desk, featuring geometric motifs. Furthermore, the inlays on the front, sides, back, and top
