Description

Decorative red glazed ceramic bottle featuring stylized reserve motifs in contrasting grey tones. The elongated silhouette, defined by a cylindrical neck and matching sculptural stopper, gives the piece a strong architectural presence.A wooden lateral element enhances the handcrafted character of the composition, while the contrast between glossy glaze and graphic decoration reinforces its modernist aesthetic, typical of European studio production from the 1960s-1970s.Signed piece.20th century, circa 1970.Click Here to see this piece directly on Our Website
