Aviator Tie Pin - 18k Gold And Pearl - French Air Force Sdc25epi001

350 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Length : 6,5 cm

Description

Antique Tie Pin - Aviator Badge - 18K Gold and Pearl - French Air Force - SDC25EPI001. Rare and elegant antique tie pin in 18-karat gold, adorned with an aviator badge depicting an eagle with outstretched wings, an iconic symbol of military aviation. An elegant accessory steeped in history, a testament to the prestige associated with the military aviator corps. This badge is directly inspired by the traditional pilot's wings of the French Air Force, symbols worn by aviators, particularly military pilots. The outstretched wings embody mastery of the skies and belonging to the elite of flight personnel. This type of pin was most likely intended to be worn on civilian clothing by an air force officer or fighter pilot, or even with their dress uniform, as a traditional piece of jewelry recalling their affiliation with

Dealer

French Antiques Normandy
antiquaire généraliste
Tel : 06 75 87 95 30
Mobile : 06 75 87 95 30

Bayeux 14400

military aviation. 18-karat gold (eagle's head hallmark, aviator's badge with a small dangling genuine pearl). Length approximately 6.5 cm. Gross weight: 2.71 g (the pearl is obviously not gold). An elegant and historically significant accessory, a testament to the prestige associated with the military aviator corps.