Description

A charming and rare Napoleon III period walnut desk that transforms into a games table. The delightful writing surface is covered in tan leather and features a small cylinder drawer at the top. The top lifts to reveal a storage compartment. The writing surface can also be removed to reveal a games table with a green felt surface. It has a drawer in the apron. It rests on very elegant curved legs ending in bronze mounts. Superb patina and in perfect condition. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. Viewable in our 2500m² showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos available upon request.
