Description

A regional wardrobe, known as a Médoc wardrobe, with two large molded doors, shell feet, a shaped crossbar, molded uprights, and a gendarme's hat cornice. Inside, it conceals a two-door sideboard and ornate shelves. It retains its beautiful wrought iron fittings, lock, key, etc. The exterior is constructed of various woods, including acacia and cherry on the front, and softwood and fruitwood on the sides; the interior is painted wood (blue). Restorations consistent with age and use. 18th century. For transport and shipping, please contact me.
