Description

This plaster cast comes from the studio of Charles Filleul. It is unsigned, but it is indeed a plaster cast made by his hand. It is a preparatory work, a sketch for a statue that was probably larger. It has a lovely patina and a pleasing appearance.

Regarding its condition, there are some missing parts: the left arm and right hand are missing, and there are no feet. There are also typical signs of wear. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the object. Please examine the photos carefully to assess its condition. Feel free to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description.
