Description

An antique oil on canvas by Frederick Airy (19th century), depicting a lively rural landscape with horsemen, a river, and a country house. The scene illustrates a peaceful landscape with a country lane, two riders approaching a small bridge, and a house situated on a hill. The work is presented in a rich antique frame of wood and gilt stucco, decorated with classical motifs. Ideal for a classic interior or country house. Good overall condition with slight signs of age, visible in the photos.

Antique frame with some signs of wear.

Dimensions: Width: 90cm with frame; Height: 63cm
