Description

A medium-sized American desk from the 1940s, made of oak. Beautiful patina. In good condition, the cylinder lock winds smoothly. Four drawers in the lower section and two small ones in the tiered section. Two retractable shelves at the front. Horizontal and vertical filing compartments, pen holders, and side slots for mail when the roll-top is closed. The lock works, and when engaged, all drawers are secured. Note two small repairs (filled cracks) on the tiered section's edges (see photos). The back of this desk is in good condition. It can be completely disassembled. 111 x 77 cm. Tabletop height: 78 cm / Total height: 121 cm. Height under drawer: 65 cm. Shelf: 41 cm.
