Description

A decorative set of three 19th-century drinking accessories: An antique Bret double-bodied glass siphon on a white porcelain base. This bistro-style seltzer water dispenser is covered in caning, with its beautiful pewter tap, and is complete, with a slight crack under the caning in good condition. It is marked AP 196. A decorative object in good condition; it is accompanied by a flask covered in woven rattan with a pewter stopper and a matching, equally elegant flask. This constitutes a beautiful, well-preserved decorative piece and a set on the same theme.
