Description

Eugène Deshayes (1828-1891) - Orientalist Scene. A very fine oil on panel by the French painter Eugène Deshayes, depicting an elegant Orientalist scene in a desert landscape. The work features two figures dressed in traditional costumes moving within a vast setting of luminous tones, evoking the landscapes of the Middle East or North Africa. The panoramic composition and the fine detail reflect the interest of 19th-century painters in the Orient, in the tradition of Orientalist painting highly prized by collectors. The work is signed in the lower right and presented in a beautiful, richly ornamented antique frame, which particularly enhances the scene (New Orientalist frame valued at EUR600).
