Description

Albert Regagnon - "The City of Carcassonne"
Beautiful oil on panel painted in 1953 by Albert Regagnon, depicting the famous City of Carcassonne, a remarkable medieval complex listed as a historical monument. The artist sensitively captures the atmosphere and imposing character of the ramparts and towers of this iconic city in the south of France. The composition highlights the medieval architecture and the volumes of the fortress, rendered with a harmonious palette and a lively painterly touch.
