

17th-century Style Rapier-type Sword - Spanish Manufacture From Toledo - Mid-20th Century

300 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Wrought iron

Length : 100

Description

A 17th-century style rapier-type sword, made in the second half of the 20th century by the renowned workshops of Toledo, Spain. The blade is adorned with fine acid-etched engravings of scrolling foliage and Renaissance motifs, bearing the original inscription "Toledo - Made in Spain". The interlaced guard and the metal filigree grip display a patina of use, giving it a beautiful collector's appearance. The long, fixed blade is finely engraved with decorative motifs. A vintage piece emblematic of the craftsmanship of Spanish master swordsmiths.
