Description

Oil on canvas. Emilian School, 18th century.

Large, varied fruit composition with peaches, pears, cherries, pomegranates, and grapes, amidst which are also a large cabbage, a bunch of tubers, and some carnations. On the left are two glass jars containing fruit preserves. The composition overflows from a wooden tub set on a table in an outdoor setting, with treetops and bushes in the background. The painting has been restored and relined in the past. It is presented in a period gilded frame. The item is in good condition, with minor signs of wear. We try to present the item's actual condition as accurately as possible with the photos. If any details are unclear from the photos, the description will apply.
