Description

Elegant Murano glass vase with a scavo finish in a beautiful dark yellow hue. Its slender baluster silhouette is adorned with four small white hot-applied decorations on the body and a spun glass motif wrapped around the white neck. Handcrafted, mouth-blown, vintage, mid-20th century, circa 1960s, in the style of Seguso Vetri d'Arte productions. No visible signature. Height 28.5 cm, maximum diameter approximately 16 cm. The vase is in very good condition, without chips or cracks, a very discreet microscopic chip on the neck, and a few minor, discreet signs of wear. Approximately 700 g.
