Description

Painted, curved chest of drawers in the Venetian Louis XV style - 20th century. This charming painted chest of drawers, inspired by the Venetian Louis XV style, brings a great deal of character and color to any interior. It is distinguished by its hand-painted decorative elements, including stylized floral motifs and vases of flowers on a cream background, framed by blue-green friezes. The top is also adorned with a central floral design. The curved front features three large drawers, each decorated with a painted motif. Round handles complete the look in an authentic and traditional style. The chest rests on four ball feet, also painted, reinforcing its decorative style. This chest of drawers is an ideal piece for a mountain-style or characterful home, but can also add an original touch to a more contemporary
