

Ladakh Headdress Known As Perak/peyrak In Turquoises

690 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Semi precious stone

Length : 112 cm

Description

Important Ladakh headdress known as a perak/peyrak. Composed of a long, richly padded red fabric adorned with over 330 natural turquoise stones intertwined with three reliquary beads (Gau) and a carnelian appliqué surrounded by coral beads (a species not subject to CITES). The central section is encircled by two large ear flaps of black-dyed astrakhan fur, from which hang braids of hair and wool knotted together at the bottom. North India, Himalayan region, Ladakh territory, 20th century. Total length: 112 cm. Provenance: Brought back from an ethnographic expedition in 1984.

Dealer

Murmure des Arts

Antiquités

Mobile : 33623417884

60 Rue François 1er

Paris 75008