Description

Elegant, timeless, and instantly recognizable, this 18-karat rose gold Bulgari sautoir necklace captivates with the purity of its lines, the fluidity of its drape, and the iconic allure characteristic of the Italian Maison. Approximately 90 cm long, this Bulgari sautoir necklace offers a striking presence when worn, while maintaining remarkable flexibility and a particularly fluid movement. Its refined design alternates the warm glow of 18-karat rose gold with the sophisticated contrast of mother-of-pearl and black onyx, for a look that is chic, modern, and easy to style. This interplay of motifs adds considerable elegance and allows the piece to be worn with a variety of styles, from day to evening. The mother-of-pearl delicately captures the light, while the onyx adds depth and character, creating the balance so sought after in jewelry from renowned houses.

The sautoir weighs 33.55 grams, a weight that confirms its beautiful presence and the quality of its craftsmanship. The clasp is signed Bvlgari in full, as seen in the photos, an essential detail that reassures and enhances the appeal of the piece for a collector of pre-owned, signed luxury jewelry.

This piece is presented in very good condition, close to perfect, having been worn very little.

This is a wonderful opportunity to acquire a Bvlgari necklace, in a long and elegant version, particularly sought after for its refinement and versatility. In a context where new jewelry prices and the price of gold have risen sharply, this pre-owned Bvlgari sautoir represents a prime acquisition: a piece of jewelry from a prestigious house, both desirable, wearable, and a valuable heirloom. A luxurious and timeless sautoir, perfect for enhancing a silhouette, illuminating a neckline, or adding a touch of distinction to both simple and formal outfits.
