Description

COD 11513A magnificent French painting from the mid-19th century. This artwork oil on board depicts a stunning river landscape, artwork of remarkable pictorial quality. We see a stream flowing between rocks and vegetation, dominated by a picturesque rural building with a high, sloping roof. The scene opens to a bright sky crossed by light clouds, while in the distance, delicate mountain ranges emerge, rendered with refined atmospheric perspective. On the right, along the stream bank, we see a small, solitary fisherman, lending a poetic and contemplative quality to the scene. The composition, constructed with a balance of shaded areas and bright openings, reveals a painting style sensitive to the tradition of European Romantic landscapes. The rendering of the moving water and the illuminated foliage, achieved with lively and vibrant brushstrokes, is particularly effective. Painting signed Peyron lower left, attributable to the French painter Jacques Guillaume Achille Peyron, a talented landscape painter from Saint-Germain-en-Laye who participated in the Paris Salon between 1831 and 1844 (the artwork does not currently come with a certificate, but it can be requested upon payment of the relevant additional costs). This painting is ideal for refined, classical or contemporary settings, capable of bringing the poetry of the Romantic landscape into the home. The scenic, contemporary frame in wood and gilded plaster is beautifully decorated, with some small losses and signs of aging (see photo). The painting is in overall good condition. Internal dimensions: H 35 x W 26.5 cm. As each of our products it will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and guarantee with photographic documentation.
