Description

This mahogany veneer and solid mahogany nightstand immediately captivates with the nobility of its wood and the depth of its luminous grain. Its cylindrical silhouette, typical of the Empire style, reveals meticulous craftsmanship where every detail testifies to exacting expertise. Topped with a grey Sainte-Anne marble slab, this small piece of furniture harmoniously combines the warmth of the wood with the mineral coolness of the stone. The cylinder opens with an arched door, elegantly adorned with a small oval handle in gilt bronze, finely sculpted with vegetal motifs--a delicate detail that enhances the piece's appeal. The perfectly arranged interior offers two shelves, one of which is covered with a marble slab, ideal for displaying precious objects, glassware, or bedside accessories. A charming
