Description

This Egyptian Revival style desk, crafted in the 20th century from solid and veneered mahogany, is upholstered in patterned leather with gilt vignettes. It is distinguished by its neoclassical elegance and rich decoration. It features two side drawers and a central drawer, offering discreet and functional storage. Two side shelves extend the work surface, adding a practical dimension to this refined piece. Its gilt bronze ornamentation, with motifs of swans, rosettes, and palmettes, underscores the Egyptian inspiration while adding a touch of luxury. The particularly graceful legs terminate in powerful lion's paw feet, lending the piece a majestic air and a strong character. A harmonious piece of furniture, both decorative and perfectly suited to everyday use.Period: 20th century. Excellent
