Description

Large oil on canvas from the 1900s-1920s depicting fishermen returning to port, possibly Concarneau or Douarnenez. The painter, Mariette Lefevre Defive, created a beautiful and realistic work in the style of painters Fernand Legout Gerard, Paul Philippe, or even Henri Barnoin. The canvas needs cleaning, the varnish needs re-varnishing, and a professional estimate is available for an additional EUR200. The canvas is 100% original and comes from an estate sale in the Pontivy region. It measures 80cm x 40cm excluding the frame, which is original but needs restoration (see last photo).
