Description

An elegant Louis XV style sewing table, in mahogany and rosewood marquetry, adorned on the front with a delicately painted medallion of a cherub, set within a scrolling gilt-bronze cartouche whose rocaille volutes emphasize the gentleness of the subject. Its top is entirely decorated with meticulously executed checkerboard marquetry and bordered by a molding, adding a brilliant line that accentuates the sinuous shape of the rim. The interior of the sewing table is lined with blue velvet, providing a refined and contrasting touch, and demonstrating the care taken in the arrangement of the compartment. The bronze ornamentation continues on the cabriole legs, embellished at the top with foliate appliqués ending in finely crafted sabots. The sides are fitted with bronze handles,
