Description

A beautiful anatomical plate depicting a cross-section of the human brain, taken from the famous medical work by Dr. Jean-Baptiste Marc Bourgerie (1797-1849) and illustrated by the painter and artist Nicolas Henri Jacob (1782-1871). This lithograph is part of the monumental work titled Traité complet de l'anatomie de l'homme, published in Paris between 1831 and 1854 and considered one of the most remarkable anatomical atlases of the 19th century. The plate presented here is from Volume III, numbered Pl. 18. It depicts with great precision a dissection of the brain performed from life, characteristic of the scientific and artistic rigor of Nicolas Henri Jacob's plates. Lithograph printed by Lemercier, Benard et Cie in Paris, one of the most important lithographic workshops of
