Description

A rare and beautiful reproduction of the very large color map of Provence by Petro Ioanne Bomparis, presented in a gilt frame. Its large size and precision are striking. This "Curiosity," first published in 1593 and reprinted in the 20th century, is described as "Provinciae. Régionis Galliae. vera exactissimaq descriptio" by Petro Ioanne Bomparis. This important map of Provence from the late 16th century is a marvel, beautifully presented with a margin offering views and, along the sides, the rich coats of arms of its principal cities. With its faithful reproduction of the graphic design and colors, this map has all the qualities to be a refined and historical addition to a collector's cabinet. The beautiful colors on this slightly patinated laid paper set the tone for a history and geography
