Description

Superb vermeil magnifying glass from the Boin-Taburet firm. The magnifying glass is entirely made of vermeil, in the Louis XVI style. The handle is in the form of a fluted column, the end of which is covered with a wide base of acanthus leaves, itself surmounted by a large knotted laurel wreath. The vermeil rim surrounding the glass is embellished with a laurel leaf torus, echoing the handle. The magnifying glass is very functional with a beautiful magnifying effect. It is hallmarked: Minerva 1st standard (pre-1973) for 950/1000 silver. Maker's mark: GB with a stool, used between 1873 and 1900. In full: Boin Tabouret // A Paris. A stamped number: 139573. The Boin-Taburet company was founded in 1873 through the partnership of jeweler Emile Taburet and antique dealer

Georges Boin, his son-in-law. The quality of the company's work, evident in our box, was recognized at the Universal Exhibitions of 1878 and 1889. In 1900, Georges Boin partnered with goldsmith Henri under the name "Boin et Henry Orfèvres" (Boin and Henry Goldsmiths), and the company changed its name again in 1906 to "Henry Frères et Cie" (Henry Brothers and Co.). A very beautiful magnifying glass that is as decorative as it is functional, featuring a superb neoclassical design that lends richness and elegance to this object. 16.7 cm long 7.7 cm in diameter 123.8 grams gross. Very good condition. Minor scratches from use and traces of oxidation. Collection in person in Paris or insured shipping via Colissimo. France: EUR15 Europe: EUR20 Rest of the world: EUR35
