Description

Bread bin / carved walnut - lively scene decoration - early 20th century. Superb bread bin in solid wood, richly carved with remarkable figurative decoration depicting folk scenes and figures in traditional dance. This relief carving brings a great deal of charm and character to the piece. The upper front has a drop-front that opens to reveal a practical storage space with small compartments. The piece rests on four turned legs and offers a wide lower shelf for additional storage or displaying decorative objects. The carved decoration depicts several figures dancing around a landscape and architectural elements, in a very lively style evoking popular or regional scenes. Features Type: Kneading trough Material: Solid wood Decoration: Figurative carvings (dance scene / folklore) Hinged lid Interior
