Description

Very important Louis XV/Rocaille lacquered and gilded mirror - antique fireplace mirror - 19th century. Magnificent large Louis XV Rocaille style mirror, richly decorated and entirely lacquered and gilded, ideal as a fireplace mirror or decorative wall mirror. The frame features highly ornate carved work, typical of the Louis XV style, with scrolls, acanthus leaves, and floral motifs. The upper part is crowned with a prominent central Rocaille decoration, while the base is also richly carved. Its imposing dimensions and elegance make it a remarkable decorative piece for a living room, entryway, or above a fireplace. The glass has a peripheral bevel, adding refinement and depth to the whole. Characteristics: Style: Louis XV/Rocaille; Type: wall mirror or fireplace mirror; Carved wooden frame; Gilding with gold leaf, antique lacquer; Beveled glass; Rich decoration of scrolls, foliage, and flowers. Dimensions: Height: 209 cm; Width: 161 cm; Depth: 9 cm. Large and very decorative.

Good overall condition. Note: signs of wear and patina on the gilding, a few small chips or old repairs on the frame, slight signs of age on the glass. These elements are discreet and do not detract from the charm and authenticity of the piece. Ideal for a mantelpiece mirror, large living room, majestic entryway, classic decor, castle or private mansion, Haussmannian or bourgeois interior. ? Very large decorative format ? Richly carved frame ? Timeless Louis XV style
