Description

Art Deco Wall-Mounted Coat Rack with Mirror and Console - Gilt Wrought Iron - Lacquered Panel Attached to the Back. A superb Art Deco wall-mounted coat rack in gilt metal with a central mirror and marble top. An elegant and functional decorative piece, typical of entryway ensembles from the 1920s and 1930s. The structure is made of hammered wrought iron, with a geometric design characteristic of the Art Deco style, embellished with stylized floral motifs (roses and leaves). The set comprises a central oval mirror, a small console with a marble top, several hooks for coats and hats, and two side umbrella stands. The upper section also includes a hat shelf. The entire piece is mounted on a large wooden panel for easy wall mounting. This type of entryway furniture was very common in
