Large, Deep Bowl In Solid Silver With Cloisonné Enamel. Caviar Bowl? Russian Work? Enamel.

680 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Diameter : 15 cm

Height : 4,5 cm

Description

Magnificent deep bowl in solid silver and enamel.The bowl was entirely hand-hammered using traditional techniques and retains the marks of this craftsmanship, which catch the light beautifully.The rim is decorated with a corded frieze.The center of the bowl features an applied central boss with a magnificent, large cloisonné enamel motif, typical of the Russian silversmithing tradition.The bowl is hallmarked on the reverse:935 for the silver content339 (?) likely a mint markThe absence of any hallmarks other than the silver content makes identification difficult, although the central motif is typical of Russian enamel production. It is probably a 20th-century piece made in Russia or a country within the Russian cultural sphere of influence.The shape of this bowl, combined with

Dealer

Anxtique
Objets d'art du XVIIIe au XXe siècle, orfèvrerie et objets de vitrine
Tel : anxtique@gmail.com
Mobile : 0607711514
Fax : anxtique@gmail.com

Paris 75000

this technique, could suggest its use for caviar, the enamel motif being revealed gradually as the caviar is tasted.This is a magnificent, beautifully crafted piece, made by a talented silversmith, that will enhance your table setting for a festive meal.15 cm in diameter4.5 cm high161.3 gramsPick up in Paris or shipped via insured Colissimo.France: EUR15Europe: EUR20Rest of the world: EUR35