Description

Beautiful Moustiers earthenware fountain composed of two elements: a spout and a basin. The decoration is in a late 18th-century style, adorned with stylized plants, fantastical animals, and grotesque or Japonist figures. Two elegant female heads grace the basin's handles. The two elements are independent and can be used together or separately. The fountain has a removable lid and an ornate pewter tap. The entire set is in perfect condition. A Moustiers-Sainte-Marie production, signed and dated to the 1980s. Basin: length: 27 cm x height: 14 cm x depth: 17 cm. Fountain: height: 33 cm x width: 17 cm x depth: 16 cm.
