Description

A charming pair of Louis XVI style bouillotte tables, featuring an elegant oval shape and harmonious proportions. Each table rests on four tapered, slightly curved legs, ending in delicate bronze sabots, and joined by an oval stretcher that provides both stability and functionality. The apron opens with two side drawers, one functional and the other a simulated drawer, characteristic of bouillotte tables. The entire piece is crafted from a beautiful veneer in warm hues, carefully varnished. The tops are inlaid with breccia marble in shades of pink, purple, white, and gray, encircled by an openwork brass gallery, adding a refined decorative touch and protecting the surface. Elegant and practical, these side tables will integrate perfectly into a classic or contemporary interior, as end tables, bedside
