Description

Art Nouveau sugar spoon in solid silver and vermeil - Minerva hallmark, silversmith E.E. Elegant Art Nouveau style sugar spoon in solid silver (Minerva head hallmark, 950/1000 fineness). The round bowl is richly engraved with butterflies and floral motifs and has a vermeil (gilt silver) interior. The handle is decorated with stylized foliage typical of the naturalist taste of the late 19th century. Lozenge-shaped silversmith's hallmark with the initials E.E. and a central symbol, attributed to the Parisian silversmith Ernest Eschwege. French work from the Art Nouveau period, circa 1890-1910. Very good condition, beautiful interior gilding. A decorative and collectible piece for Art Nouveau silversmiths. Envoyer des commentaires
