Description

A beautiful set of twelve antique damask linen napkins of fine quality, with a refined weave and undeniable charm. These napkins captivate with their magnificent, finely woven hunting scene, blending ducks, pheasants, and ornamental vegetation in a luminous and elegant damask. A rare design, reminiscent of fine antique tables and château linens. The napkins have been washed, ironed, and starched. The presentation is meticulous, and the set looks very elegant. The linen is beautiful, clean, fresh, and ready for use or collection. Dimensions: Approximately 85 x 65 cm for each napkin. Condition: Very good overall condition. One napkin has a repair, two napkins have a tiny hole, the rest of the set is very clean. These minor flaws are insignificant considering the quality of the linen, its generous
