Description

Elegant Italian wall mirror from the mid-20th century, made in the 1950s in refined Florentine Baroque style. The frame is entirely made of finely carved and gilt wood, richly decorated with scrolls and leafy cartouches, typical of the Tuscan decorative tradition. The composition is lively and sculptural, with openwork volutes surrounding the central mirror, creating a striking decorative effect. This type of mirror takes inspiration from 18th-century Florentine baroque and rococo models, widely appreciated in Italian decorative production of the post-war period. A highly decorative piece with strong visual impact, ideal for an entrance hall, living room or bedroom. Dimensions: Height 82 cm Width 57 cm The mirror will be carefully packed in a wooden crate to ensure safe transport.
