Description

We present this refined antique Italian bedside table dating back to the late 19th century, featuring typical features of the Napoleon III period. This bedside table is crafted from rosewood veneer and features refined bronze details. Its design is characterized by wavy lines, with two long, slender legs that are a distinctive element of this period. Small, finely chiseled gilt-bronze details are present throughout the table, creating a refined visual accent. Its functionality is excellent for storing small bedroom accessories; it features a small drawer, a lower shelf, and a curious pull-out accessory shelf. Its condition is very good, with minor signs of wear consistent with its age. You can immediately consider adding this nightstand to your home. Although originally designed for the
