Description

Flat box, 29cm x 23cm, wooden core covered entirely from black leather, decorated with an incised and hot-pressed checkerboard pattern underneath, stamped lines and ironwork on sides, the flat lid with a double speckled grid.

Superb applied hinges, iron mustachs on back; fleur-de-lis finials on lid, as is the hasp joining lock, which is original, as is the key, and almost fully functional.

Regarding its condition: over four centuries, this beautiful object has suffered wear and tear, having been repaired at least two or three times.

Inside stripped and red-washed, shows by its notches that former compartments
