Description

Silver-plated tea set - Perles pattern - Christofle.
This elegant silver-plated tea set from the renowned Christofle, in the Perles pattern, features one of the manufacturer's most iconic designs. Created in 1876, the Perles collection draws inspiration from the refined Louis XVI style, incorporating the delicate beaded frieze that accentuates the lines of the pieces. This timeless design perfectly embodies the elegance and craftsmanship of French silversmithing. The set includes: a teapot, a covered sugar bowl, and a creamer. The quality of the craftsmanship, the balanced shapes, and the understated elegance of the decoration testify to the excellence of Christofle, a supplier to numerous courts and grand tables since the 19th century. The Perles pattern remains a classic of French tableware,
