Description

Axel Vervoordt. This rare 1980s coffee table, designed by Belgian decorator Axel Vervoordt, illustrates his deep love for natural materials. The table features a harmonious blend of wenge wood for the base and bamboo for the top, reflecting Vervoordt's inspiration from Japanese design principles and the wabi-sabi concept, which emphasizes beauty in imperfection and transience. The clean lines and subdued color palette contribute to its serene and sophisticated presence, making it a notable example of Vervoordt's design philosophy. H34 x W150 x D110
