

Terracotta Sculpture Of Saint Thérèse Of Lisieux Reading The Bible While Embroidering

120 EUR

Signature : Sevan

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Terracotta

Length : 16 cm

Width : 13 cm

Height : 19 cm

Description

Terracotta sculpture of Saint Thérèse of Lisieux reading the Bible while embroidering. Resulting from the French religious craft, this sculpture in glazed terracotta represents Saint Therese of Lisieux, Holy French of the end of the XIXe century known for her "miracle of the roses". The usual attributes of St. Therese of Lisieux are the rose, which here are represented by roses & briars entangled on the edge of her veil. The bible, here open which she reads. And more rarely embroidery, what she does here. This sealed sculpture SEVAN Model Deposited makes a piece protected by copyright and relatively rare, this representation of Saint Thérèse of Lisieux being much rarer and shows a personal aspect of the Saint. Its lively and lively form accompanied by the organic patterns of roses is inspired by the

Dealer

l'Antochine

Antiquities from XVIIth to XXth century, Religious Art & Asian Arts

Mobile : 0783636220

La Ferté-Saint-Aubin 45240

Art Nouveau style at the beginning of the 20th century. In very good general condition, only a small gap at the edge of the sail at the back should be noted. Its varnished patina makes it an interesting religious work, which will be perfect in a sculpture collection on the theme of religion & French Saints. Fast & neat shipping in France, Europe & worldwide. Dimensions Height: 19 cm width: 13 cm Length: 16 cm Weight: 1.3 kg