Description

A pair of bronze candelabra with a golden-brown patina, circa 1850, known as Etruscan style. Each candelabra features five oil lamp-shaped arms supported by a cylindrical shaft richly decorated with flowering foliage. Their tripod bases simulate claw feet and are adorned with palm and scroll motifs. French work, circa 1850, attributed to Barbedienne. A beautiful and elegant pair of candelabra with an unusual design! Shipping available via specialized courier or Colissimo.
