Description

A Louis XV/Louis XVI Style Marquetry Commode with Marble Top - 19th Century. This very elegant antique commode in the Louis XV/Louis XVI Transition style is crafted from marquetry wood with a superb geometric design and marquetry stringing. The gently curved front features three drawers arranged in three rows, offering ample storage. The fronts are decorated with marquetry arranged in a radiating pattern, framed by decorative stringing. The bronze ornaments (keyhole escutcheons, handles, corner mounts, and feet) emphasize the elegance of the piece and recall the classic aesthetic of 18th-century French furniture. The commode is topped with a veined gray marble slab, which provides both sturdiness and refinement. The cabriole legs ending in bronze sabots give the
