Description

Louis XVI Style Walnut Chaise Longue with Footrest - 19th Century. This beautiful Louis XVI style chaise longue, crafted from carved walnut, comes with a matching footrest, forming an elegant and comfortable set, made in the 19th century. The elongated medallion-shaped back is upholstered in a striped fabric with a floral design, in very good condition and perfectly taut. The curved armrests rest on fluted uprights, typical of the Louis XVI style. The seat is wide and comfortable, extending into a separate footrest, echoing the same lines and fabric, allowing it to be used as a chaise longue. The molded apron is adorned with carved floral motifs, and the whole rests on tapered, fluted legs, characteristic of the style. The fabric appears more recent than the frame and is in very good
