Description

A very large antique linen and cotton tablecloth, made of a beautiful, supple, clean, and pleasant fabric, perfectly suited to a large reception table. This beautiful piece of antique linen impresses with its generous dimensions of 520 cm x 180 cm and its elegant damask with a floral and ornamental design, combining ribbons, foliage, scattered small motifs, and large decorative compositions. It features a discreet double monogram, subtly integrated into the overall design. The tablecloth has been washed, ironed, and starched. It is in very good condition and remains clean. There are no holes to report. There are simply two old fold marks, still slightly visible, as well as a few small pills on the front and a few pills on the back. A beautiful, large antique tablecloth, both decorative and practical,
