Description

An elegant 19th-century alabaster sculpture depicting a semi-reclining nude woman on a beautifully draped base, holding a young boy by the shoulder. Behind the child, on the ground, are a bow and quiver. The child's right arm, part of the index finger of the woman's right hand, and the toe of her left foot are missing. There is also a small chip on the index finger of the woman's left hand; otherwise, it is in good overall condition. Dimensions: base 50 cm x 26 cm, height 23 cm.
